4-Day Sapa Easy Walking

Duration: 4 Days

Tour route: Hanoi – Sapa – Hanoi

Start/End: Hanoi/Hanoi

Day 1: Hanoi – Sapa by Express bus (L, D)

Depart Hanoi on Sapa Express Bus at 7 AM, after 6-hour journey on a good road we reach to Sapa passing through Vinh Phuc, Yen Bai, Lao Cai provinces. Arriving in Sapa, “A town on Cloud”, we will be welcome and transfer to our hotel. This afternoon, we will have the opportunity to view the magnificent scenery for our first walk to Cat Cat village. Overnight in hotel in Sapa.

Day 2: Lao Chai, Ta Van Villages (B, L, D)

Today we will commence a short journey by driving south toward Muong Hoa valley. From here, start our walk down trail into the valley, which is the largest terraced rice paddy field in Sapa area. We will understand more about how the local people here cultivate the rice on the hill sides. If we visit the valley sometime in between May and October, we will see & experience how the local do planting and harvesting, one of the most important activities in the daily life. You can even try how to cut the rice plant on the fields. The walk takes us from Lao Chai, the village of Black Hmong people then to Ta Van, a village of Giay people. On the way, we also visit a local Catholic Church. After Ta Van, we go back to Sapa on our van. Overnight in hotel in Sapa

Approx: 1 hours driving/ 2 hours walking

Day 3: Sapa – Pansipan Peak by Mountain Train & Cable car (B, L, D)

After breakfast at hotel, we walk to Sun Plaza where we take 4-minute Mountain Train through valleys, viaducts and tunnels offering beautiful views of surrounding villages as well as nature. Reaching the Cable Car station, we get off the train and enjoy another 20 minutes cable car ride up to the top. Normally, it takes at least two or three days to reach the Peak of Fansipan Mountain on foot. However, with the newly three-rope cable car system, we can see the peak and spectacular surrounding from the peak within half a day.

After 20-minute ride, we start challenging yourself with 636 high steps up to Fansipan Summit – which is considered ‘The Roof of Indochina’ with 3,143-meter height. Enjoy spectacular scenery of Hoang Lien Mountain and lush forest, we walk down to the cable car station and ride back. Take the Mountain Train back to town and have lunch in Indian restaurant.

In the afternoon, we visit the busy town’s market with colorful local stuffs, see minority people at their daily life and try your bargain skills in buying beautiful small stuffs as souvenirs.

Dinner at Indian restaurant and overnight at hotel.

Day 4: Sapa – Ham Rong Mountain – Hanoi by bus (B, L)

After breakfast, we have short visit to Ham Rong Mountain, enjoy traditional music performance and get panorama of Sapa town. Having lunch, check out and depart to Hanoi. Arriving in Hanoi at 21h30, we transfer to hotel. Trip ends.
